Presidents Report:

Our President, Claudette Hough is currently recovering from Hip surgery and was unable to contribute personally to the Newsletter.

We wish Claudette a speedy recovery.

In Claudette's absence, Vice President, Val Wright has presented a report.

President Claudette is slowly improving and we are looking forward to seeing her when she is ready.

Covid News - our cancer morning tea and zone day at Mullumbimby have been cancelled. One day soon we will enjoy life as it used to be. We can all live in hope.

LCACA News- LCACA are applying for a grant. Signage has been approved and five signs are being made.

LCACA are also calling for entries of fine art, jewellery, woodwork and patchwork and quilting for a competition and exhibition to be held 2nd and 3rd October 2021.

Entries close 10th September 2021 at 4.00pm.

Details and entry forms at Ferry Park. Hope you are all well.

Val Wright, Vice President.

Events: - Biggest Morning Tea - 2021

Unfortunately, due to the current Covid19 restrictions we had to cancel the BMT 2021. We should plan for 2022 which we hope will be post covid.

Table Runner Challenge

Our Challenge Table runners are on display at Ferry Park for July. If you haven't already visited to cast your vote you need to get down now as we only have a few days of July left.

Val Wright project

Flannelette hearts for mothers of new born in care babies. Please see Val if you have completed any to date. This is an ongoing project as these items are always required.

Zone Day 2021:

Unfortunately, Zone Day for 2021 is on shaky ground due to the latest Covid19 Restrictions. A firm decision should be made by end of July. Watch this space for any rescheduling of this event.

September 1st - 5th Sydney Quilt Show

Due to Covid19 restrictions this event has been rescheduled from end of June to the above date. The current lockdown in Sydney is to last until 31st July. Please check all available information on this ever changing situation.

September - Month

Maclean Patchwork and Quilters is Artist of the month for September at Ferry Park. So this is our opportunity to possibly raise some funds for the Cancer Council by displaying and selling items during this month. So get a sewing Ladies.

LCACA has decided to hold an exhibition this year on 2-3rd October 2021. There will be exhibitors in, Fine art, Sculpture, Junior Art, Jewellery, Patchwork and Quilting and Woodwork. It will be held at Maclean Showground. Any developments around covid will be carefully monitored and adjustments made accordingly. LCACA are seeking help with distribution of flyers or help with organising the event, Check at Ferry Park if you can help.

COVID19 Quotes:

"Thousands of people are killed by something we can't see, millions are quarantined in their homes and yet people are more concerned about their haircut."

"An empty house? You decide whether it's loneliness or a blessing."

"You don't need to touch them to hug them."

"As the masks come off, what I look forward to most are all your smiling faces."

Happy Creating.....Sue
